Military Awards Presented at Annual Banquet in December

On December 17, 1957, the annual Christmas Banquet and the presentation of the military awards for the school year 1957-1958 was held. After a short talk by Col. Roller, the awards were presented.

Cadet T. Duke Fancher, Battalion Commander, was the only cadet in MST IV to receive the Honor Military Pin (designated by a blue star against a white background). In order to achieve this honor, a cadet must have a grade of 90 or above and must be in the top ten per cent of his class.

In MST III, Cadets Fiszman and Lang received the award, while A. Garcia was the high man in MST II with a 92 average. Others in the class to receive it were Cadets Dorman, Holland, Kelbaugh, Schlusemeyer, and Snow. Cadets Blakely and Weise led the MST I class with a 95 average each. Others were Cadets Armstrong, D. Garcia, Hausmann, Healy, Magruder, Murray, Palmes, Peters, Ramos, Saleeby, Sefa, Shaw, S. Smith, Smoyer, Speciale and Usry.

Cadet Fancher again led his MST IV class in rifle marksmanship by qualifying as an Expert with a 120 (out of a total possible score of 150). Rifle medals are rewarded for the firing of the 22 rifle on a 50 foot modified course E. The cadets were able to qualify for one of three medals: Expert, Sharpshooter, or Marksman.

Also, in MST IV, Cadet Yates qualified as a Sharpshooter, and Cadets R. Turner, Harmon, and Lanks qualified as Marksmen. Leading MST III with a 132, Cadet Burrell qualified as an Expert. Cadet Holt, who also qualified as an Expert, led MST II with a 124, and Cadet Albert led MST I with a 119 qualifying him as a Sharpshooter.

Others who qualified as Experts were Cadets Atkinson, Carson, Clotfelter, Giammaria, Herold, W. Mayne, R. Morris, and Thoma.

Those who qualified as Sharpshooters were Cadets Alperstine, W. Anderson, Calliari, Dorman, R.

Durst, Eastlack, Ellis, E. Flores, A. Garcia, Glasscock, Gray, Jackson, Kelbaugh, Livingood, McGrath, Snow, Tabor, Tomasek, Trout, Van Evera, and Wright.

Those who received the Marksman Medals were Cadets Adams, D. Anderson, Belford, Bryan, Byrd, Clark, Coleman, Conrad, Cultice, Crespo, Dove, S. Durst, Gil, Jaeger, Lampie, Lang, Linton, Logan, Mason, C. Miller, Moffatt, J. H. Morris, McVey, Nye, Peters, Radford, Reusser, Rogstead, Rubinger, Saleeby, Saunders, Sefa, Smcot, Snyder, Speciale, Steger, Strong, Towe, Urbina, Usry, J. Weaver, Weise, Weller, Whately, and Zehmer.

Cadets Contribute Over $1000; Band, Glee Club, Faculty Help

On Monday, February 3, 1958, the Ad Astra Per Aspera Honorary Fraternity completed its fund-raising drive for the annual March of Dimes with a record-breaking total collection of $1,003.54 in cash. Although the goal was set at only $800, the corps of cadets was determined to raise it over $1,000. In addition, last year's total was surpassed by over $200.

The first effort to raise the money for the goal was the "selling of rank" by all of the old cadets in the corps. All the Captains, including the First Captain, participated in such activities as bracing on the stoops and taking orders from the new cadets. The new cadet Captains for that day were as follows: First Captain, Cadet Dunn; Captain-Adjutant, Cadet Tolson; Captain of 'H. Q.', Cadet W. Miller; Captain of 'A', Cadet Villarroel; Captain of 'B', Cadet Noboa; Captain of 'C', Cadet Boselli; Captain of 'D', Cadet Whately; Captain of 'E', Cadet Mathis; and Captain of the Band, Cadet Usry.

Although the goal had been met by raising $815, the Officers of the Corps agreed to do away with the bracing on the stoops for new cadets for the day following if they would raise the total collection to over $1,000, which they did. Immediately, the cadets under the leadership of Major Savege, phoned Radio Station WTON to pledge the total amount to hear 'Over the Rainbow' by Judy Garland.

The cadets' activities were not limited only to this method of raising money for the March of Dimes. The A.M.A. Band played at Lee High auditorium, raising a total amount in pledges of $143.74 which was more than what the other two competing bands were able to raise. The Saturday night following that, the A.M.A. Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. William Pritchett sang; while Mrs. Pritchett, Captain Hansen, and Lieutenant Johnson rendered vocal and piano solos, respectively, to bring the total pledge of the evening to over $100.

Alumnus Returnsto Instruct At Augusta

Lt. John A. Herring, graduate of A.M.A., returned to Augusta to teach Ancient History and Civics. He is replacing Maj. O. A. Davis who was hurt in an accident over the Christmas Holidays.

Lt. Herring graduated from A.M.A. in 1947 as an honor cadet, a member of the Honor Committee, a member of the Ad Astra Per Aspera, and Sergeant-Major (Continued on Page 3)

Cadet Sammy Mathis, "Capt. of 'E' Co.," and Cadet Carl Dunn, "Battalion Commander", salute each other before the Front Arch after buying their respective ranks to raise money in the annual March of Dimes drive in early February.

Privileges -- Where Are They? New Policy Can Be Yours

There is an old adage, "Rank has its privileges," which is well worth considering. In the short time that the Editor has attended A.M.A., he has noticed that there appear to be contrary opinions to this saying.

Granted, certain individuals have some privileges, but the average cadet here does not have those that he rightfully deserves. Basically, there are four groups to which privileges should be extended.

The first division is in scholastics (the Honor Roll and Privilege List). There are two erroneous factors involved with this group. First, there is absolutely no distinction, except for a ribbon, between the two divisions. Second, there are not enough privileges granted to the Honor Roll, which seems like an injustice. Although the members of both groups are allowed to enter Barracks during a free period and are occasionally treated to a free 'dinner' at Buck's, this is not sufficient. The Editor suggests that any member of the Honor Roll be allowed to go to Buck's, the Fort, the PX, or any other place on grounds during his free time (including his vacant periods.)

The second division is the distinction between an old and new cadet. This is one group which needs the least improvement. However, the Editor would like to suggest two things: first, no new cadet should be allowed to room with an old cadet, and second, no new cadet should be allowed to room on the front of Barracks.

Actually, the third group, Officers as compared with Enlisted men, and the fourth group, Seniors as compared with non-graduates, can be combined into one group for our purposes. A good start has been made for Seniors by allowing only them to patronize Buck's before six p.m. on Sundays. Although some object to the Senior permits, the Editor believes that they are fair in every way for they offer privileges to Seniors and also to old cadets. However, one other suggestion is worth considering: the Editor is of the opinion that both Seniors and Officers should have lights until 10:30 at night and if a cadet falls into both categories, he should have lights until 11:00. This is not unreasonable considering the obligations placed on seniors and officers.

Cadets, remember that our country has supposedly been founded on democratic spirit, with the desires of the masses clearly voiced and taken into consideration. The element of public demand can be powerful. Thus, if there is sufficient demand, these privileges can be obtained. If any cadet wishes to offer any suggestions or criticisms on this or other subjects, The Bayonet will be glad to acknowledge and reprint such in "Letters to the Editor," which shall appear on this page.

Existen Bellezas en Venezuela Como El Lagu Canima Y El Salto Angel

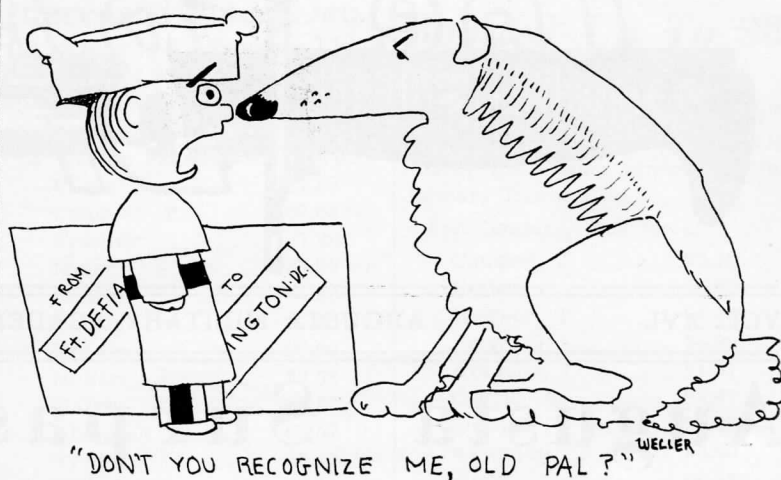

Uno en una serie de articulos describiendo las bellezas naturales de los paises latinos, como medio de acercamiento cultural.

Como pintada con caravillosos colores y mano firme se encuentra Canaima, una laguna de agua roja formada por uno de los muchos saltos del Rio Caroni, en la region de la Gran Sabana en el Estado Bolivar, Venezuela. A sus orillas han llegado muchos a quedarse abismados por la belleza natural de este lugar que tiene la suerte de haber sido dotado por la Naturaueza de tantas maravillas. Muy cerca de Canaima se encuentra el Salto Angel, la caida de agua mas alta del mundo a la cual tambien concurren con bastante regularidad turistas de todo el mundo. La belleza de Canaima no se puede describir con palabras, es algo tan maravilloso y de tal belleza que todo el que ha tenido suerte de verla solo dice: Si va a Venezuela visite la majestuosa laguna de agua roja que se extiende en la region Guayanesa de la Gran Sabana y que lleva por nombre Canaima.

"J" Barracks Acquires New Telephone And Playroom

Quite a few changes in J. Barracks! New Cadets—Room 343 is being kept in first place by cadets from Texas.

J. Barracks has several newcomers including Cadets Fisher and David Stolisky. David, a first grader, has a father who is a Commander in the Navy. It's a good thing that we call David Roller Charlie, or there would be two Davids in one room—346.

When the officers were trading rank to help the "March of Dimes," Junior Barracks cadets helped Private Sammy Mathis to "be" Captain Snell.

Wally Hutchins still keeps his Squad Sergeant rank. Wayne Stephens is now a Squad Sergeant, too, as well as Cadets R. Canevet, E. Aragona, Sammy Wales, and Chin.

Something new has been added to J. Barracks—a telephone booth. Cadet Danny Ruffner gets a lot of calls. Of course, some of the boys in Rooms 360, 361, and 362 get quite a few calls and from girls. Guess who gets the most.

Mrs. Davis says she should be able to get a fight referee license since she gets so much practice—wish somebody would buy us some boxing gloves.

The third graders have a new teacher, Mrs. George Click.

There is a little odor about the Barracks. The last time the juniors were on a hike they met . . . you guessed it—a skunk.

Major Lucas has fixed some of the playroom games so the boys have been having a grand time. Col. Roller bought some new games, too. Thanks! Take your pick — Shuffleboard, Ping-Pong, Bowling, Badminton, Checkers, Horseshoes, or Swings.

Dean Burns remembers quite a few birthdays—gifts for the boys. Stanley Hein had a cake for his birthday. We sang 'Happy Birthday' and ate cake. Johnny Forrer has a new roommate—Cadet Wagner. Morry Bernstein's mother and grandmother visited him.

Many of the juniors really enjoyed the snow-sledding. Ask Forrer, Porter, Reichard, W. Willcox, and Hammock how they enjoyed their snow hike.

Regimen de Un Dictator, Cuyas Cobardias Son Mucha

Companeros, hoy me dirijo a ustedes por primera vez para darles a conocer una de las tantas cobardias que tuvieron lugar durante el regimen de Perez Jimenez, ultimo dictador de Sur America, estas son las torturas llevadas a cabo por los mas odiados secuases de este regimen que Gracias a Dios termino por el valor de los que se atrevieron a enfrentarsele. Perez Jimenez y sus "satelites" se convirtieron en una amenaza para el Pueblo Venezolano, torturando y matando a todos los que tuvieron la mala suerte de caer en sus manos. Entre estos asesinos se destacaron Peres Estrada, jefe de la Seguridad Nacional y el "Bachiller" Castro, quien torturaba a sus victimas con una frialdad indescriptible y vestido de "smoking," les ponian corrientes electricas en las extremidades de las manos, cigarillos encendidos en las orejas, los sentaba en bloques de hielo y les hacia heridas por las que les introducian sabuyas por las que luego eran colgados. En Ciudad Bolivar eran amenazados con tirarlos a los caimanes del Rio Orinoco si no "cantaban." En fin, todas las cobardillas que Usted puede pensar fueron puestas en practica por los esbirros de Perez Estrada y el "Bachiller" Castro quienes a su vez recibian sus ordenes de Perez Jimenez, el responsable de todas las muertes injustas entre las paredes del edificio de la Seguridad Nacional. En Paz Deescansen los caidos.

Annual Teen-Queen Hop Held Feb. 7 in Memorial Gym

On Friday, February 7, Miss Catherine Birch was chosen as the queen for the annual Teen-Queen Hop. Miss Birch, who represented Lee High School, was chosen from the other contestants by three judges, including Mrs. Charles S. Roller, Jr., co-principal of A.M.A., and Major Charles Savage, a faculty member at A.M.A. Selection was made on the basis of such qualifications as beauty, personality, charm and poise.

The other contestants included Miss Paytie Hamilton, representing Stuart Hall, with Cadet Captain Bob Carson; and Miss Sarah Graham, representing Fairfax Hall, with Cadet Caesar Boselli.

The dance, which was originally planned for January 24, was postponed until February 7 because of incimate weather conditions. The semi-formal dance was presented at the Augusta Military Academy Memorial Gymnasium by the Verona Lions Club. Lasting from 8:00 p.m. to 12:00 p.m., the dance was provided with music by the Melodiers, a local dance band.

The receipts of the dance, amounting to over $200, went to the annual "March of Dimes" polio drive.

What Every Young Man Should Know...

It may be that many cadets, especially the new ones, are interested in dating some of the girls who attend Stuart Hall. Moreover, if you have already done so, but are still mystified as to the various rules pertaining to conduct, dating privileges, phone calls, and a variety of other items, this article may be of help in clearing up some of the doubts.

To begin with, only seniors may date every week. Underclass young ladies can only date every other week. Freshmen may date only once every calendar month (including dances). During the second semester, these rules are slightly altered to allow freshmen to date more often, and to allow seniors to stay out longer on dates. However, this all depends upon the behavior of the girls during the first semester.

The dating hours on Mondays are from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m., and for A.M.A. seniors, on Saturday nights from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., unless a school activity is planned. It is the common practice for a girl to sign up for a date at least twenty-four hours before the date, but exceptions to this rule may be arranged through the headmis-

A. M. A. ALUMNI NEWS

On the weekends following the Christmas vacation, Augusta has seen many alumni pass through its front gates to visit their Alma Mater. Among them are:

F. E. Wirkus, one of Augusta's outstanding first captains, class of 1955, who was with us for the Sunday dinner on January 26.

Jordan Pugh, class of 1957, who is continuing a successful course in the study of Law at the University of Virginia.

Jerry Wildman, class of 1957, and former captain of "D" Co. who spent with us a long weekend. He is now attending Ohio Wesleyan.

Guillermo Cardozo, also class of 1957, has not visited us yet, but he is studying Business Administration at Babson Institute in Eureka, Kansas, and has been elected to the Social Committee.

The Bayonet has received word that former graduate, Mr. Edwin Ellman has the degree of LL.B. and is in the Insurance and Pension Business in Columbus, Ohio.

We, of The Bayonet, hope that our readers will contribute to the success of this column by notifying us of any alumni news which they may possibly know.

tress. Another interesting factor is that no resident student may attend any dances which are on two nights in one weekend or two weekends in succession. Also, any cadet who has a blind date for a dance on a weekend may not date the same girl the following Monday.

The 'date-list' is a special privilege allotted to a few girls who have been at Stuart Hall for at least one semester, and who have proven themselves to be responsible. These girls are allowed to double-date, to go out for a dinner or a movie with cadets, and on rare occasions, they may be given special permission to double-date off-campus for Sunday dinner. Also any 'date-list' girl is in charge of the Talk Room. She takes responsibility for two or more couples.

As far as the cadet conduct is concerned, you, as an A.M.A. cadet, are expected to show courtesy to the girls as well as to faculty members of Stuart Hall. While you are in the building, you must not take off your battle jacket, unless you have the permission from the housemother on a warm day. It is against the cadet code of conduct to smoke in public, as well as against Stuart Hall rules. All cadets are requested to refrain from this habit while dating.

A.M.A. cager captain, Walt Anderson, outjumps Fishburne opponent to give the ball to teammates Don Radford and Clay Johnson.

March 1 Tilt at Norfolk Last for Big Blue Quintet

The Big Blue basketball team is enjoying one of its best years, as the Cadets have compiled a very respectable 7-3 record thus far. Head Coach Captain Ralph predicts a winning year as Augusta goes into its last six games.

The Blue Streaks started the season off right with an overtime victory over VSDB. They followed up with two more home victories over Miller School and Virginia Episcopal, respectively. When they hit the road, though, they met defeat, first at the hands of Woodberry, and later at those of St. Christopher's. A.M.A. won its first away game with Miller.

The team came home to defeat arch-rival Fishburne by fourteen points in a wild and exciting game. In the next affair, Randolph Macon put the winning shot into the air as the gun went off, to win by one point. In the last two games to date, the Augustans romped over Blue Ridge first away and then at home.

The captain of the squad is Walter Anderson. The rest of the starting lineup includes—Tabor, Clay Johnson, Zeke Zehmer, Ken Coyner. Others on the Varsity are Don Radford, Joe Sefa, and Joe Radican .

Anderson is the leading scorer to date with an 11.8 average. "Andy" also has the high game, which is the 26 scored against Fishburne. Other high averages include Coyner's 9.0, Johnson's 6.7, and Tabor's 6.2.

Obstacles remaining on the schedule are VES, Fishburne, VSDB, Woodberry, Randolph Macon, and the Norfolk Academy.

Mermen Busy as Season Nears Close

Augusta had a swimming team with a very good potential this year, according to Coach Major Hoover. The aquamen have been working out since November and are now swimming a bigger schedule than last year.

The team has many new members with past experience, in addition to returning lettermen Johnnie Atkinson, Lloyd Eastlack, and Clai Wilcox.

The first four meets were all contested at the A.M.A. pool. In the opener, the Blue Streaks went down fighting to the V.M.I. freshmen. They bounced back to trounce the Fishburne team in the next meet. The Augustans lost the next two close ones to Randolph Macon and the Richmond YMCA, respectively. They traveled to Richmond to take another defeat by the YMCA. The Big Blue then returned home with a full team to defeat Massanutten.

A.M.A. hit the road again, but lost to V.M.I. and R.M.A on separate occasion. In their last meet, the Blue Streaks came home to outswim the U. Va. freshmen. On the two-day trip to Norfolk, Cadet Atkinson came within 9-10th of a second of breaking the pool record for the 200 yard dash. Also Cadet Armstrong came within three seconds of breaking the pool record for the individual medley.

Regular swimmers have been Cadets Johnny Atkinson, Mike Basto, Luis Borrero, John Rundoff, Pete Hughes, Hunt, Maury Kruppenbacher, Joe LaRue, Kent Middleton, McKinley, and Clai Wilcox.

A.M.A. Upsets U.S.N.A. Foils

For the first time in nine years, A.M.A. defeated the foil team of the Annapolis fencing team on Saturday, February 1. Fencing a total of twenty-seven bouts (nine each for the foil, sabre, and epee), A.M.A. was able to defeat them in a total of seven bouts.

In the match, Cadet Hugh Harmon, Captain of the team, won all three of his bouts with the foil—a rarity in competition with Annapolis. Also with the foil, Cadet Jimmy Towe won two of his three bouts. Also fencing foil was Cadet Dave Trimble.

Cadet Caesar Rodriguez won one of the bouts in the sabre category, while Cadet Gil won the only bout in the epee for A.M.A. Also fencing sabre were Cadets Manor, Murray, and Noboa. Cadets Adams, McGrath, and Robert Turner also fenced with the epee.

On the previous day, A.M.A. had fenced with the Washington Fencing Club in the District of Columbia. All the members of the Washington Club had from seven to thirty-five years of experience, yet A.M.A.'s team was able to defeat them in two of the nine bouts.

Although the team has only four veterans, it has gained many new and promising members this year. Coach Major Paul V. Hoover believes that the team has done remarkably well this year—with their match against Annapolis as proof—and will continue to do so.

Rifle Team Has Victorious Season; 7-9 Won With Season's Hardest Yet To Come

In the past two months, the A.M.A. Rifle team has won seven of its nine matches and has broken two of its records. On January 28, the team fired an all-time high in A.M.'s history of 1958 out of a possible 1500 against Massanutten Military Academy which only scored a 1326. High man for that day was Cadet Pete Kelbaugh, who fired a 283 (out of a possible score of 300).

The team was also able to overcome its hardest opponent, Greenbriar Military School, which had not been beaten in the last two years. On February 7, A.M.A. scored 1386 against Greenbrier's 1373. High man for that match was Cadet Bill Burrell with a 283. Previously, on January 31, A.M.A. suffered a defeat to Greenbrier with a score of 1391 to our 1375. Again, Cadet Burrell was high man.

The first match in January was on the 14th with V.M.I., in which A.M.A. scored 1384 to their 1928. Cadet Burrell was again high man, this time with a 281. Next, A.M.A. topped neighboring Fishburne Military School on January 16 with a score of 1387 to 1359. Cadet W. Mayne scored highest with a total of 283.

The following day, Cadet Dave Holland, with a season high of 286, led A.M.A. to a smashing victory over Fork Union Military Academy 1387 to 1222. On January 24, A.M.A. met its first defeat in its match with Randolph Macon Military Academy. Losing by 38 points, the final score was A.M.A. 1349, R.M.A. 1387. In that match Cadet Peters was the high man with a 274. On January 28 the team met Massanutten Military Academy and three days later fired with Greenbrier.

The team's next match was with the Junior Varsity team of the University of Virginia, in which A.M.A. won by more than ninety points. Cadet Bill Burrell scored highest again, this time with a 282. Two days later, on February 6, A.M.A. defeated Hargrave Military Academy in a home match by more than 125 points. The total score was Augusta 1391, Hargrave 1252. In this match, Cadet Peters was high man with a 284 this time. The following day, the team brought Greenbrier to defeat for the first time in three years.
